

Course Title: Advanced First Responder including CPR/AED

Target Audience:	Persons who have a responsibility to administer CPR/AED and to attend an incident as a First Responder
Language	English
Aims:	OTI First Responder program's primary objective is to improve the continuity of patient care provided throughout Oman for pre-hospital emergencies. Police and fire department personnel are often first on the scene to assist patients prior to arrival of ambulance crews. This course is designed to teach First Responders advanced first aid techniques for sustaining life, preventing further injuries, and caring for illnesses and injuries until the next level of medical personnel arrives
Objectives:	Upon successful completion of the course students will receive: OTI First Responder Certification valid for 3 years, CPR and AED certification The emergency scene, Preventing, disease transmission, Human body system, Assessment. Respiratory emergencies, Airway ventilation, Circulatory emergencies, Bleeding, Shock. Soft tissue injuries, Musculoskeletal injuries, Head and Chest , abdominal and pelvic injuries, Sudden illnesses, Poisoning, Heat and cold related emergencies, Special populations, Childbirth, Crisis intervention, Reaching and moving people
Prerequisite:	Must be 18 years of age or over
Assessment	Multiple choice questions, Observations, classroom practical group activities
Certification:	Internationally recognized or OTI HSE endorsement to meet clients specific needs
Duration:	44 Hours or can be specific to client needs
Validity:	3 Years or can be specific to clients' needs
Venue:	OTI facilities Muscat, Safah and Mukhaizna or the client's facilities if suitable.
No of Delegate	3 – 9 but can be increased to meet client needs

04-FAC-ADV

